The National Latino Peace Officers Association is the largest Latino law enforcement association in the United States. It is open to all, regardless of race or ethnic background. The objectives of the National Latino Peace Officers Association are to create a professional association that provides its member's career training and promote education and career advancement, mentoring, and a strong commitment to community service.

The purpose of the local chapter is to honor family, education, and the community through service and mentorship. We strive to groom leaders and give back to the community through continuing charitable events. We will mentor and prepare members for promotional exams, and specialty units.

Senior Appreciation

The Orlando Police Department, Central Florida NLPOA, NOBLE, and our amazing business partners participated in our first-ever Senior Appreciation event. Orlando Police Department Chief Rolon (a long-time NLPOA member and former President of the chapter) recently started a new initiative that would allow Law Enforcement Officials and other volunteers to connect and interact with the seniors in our community. Many of our seniors are not able to do normal everyday activities because of their diminished mental and physical capabilities. The Senior Appreciation Program has allowed us ALL to help by giving back to our seniors.

Thanksgiving

We remained socially distant due to COVID but that did not stop us from reaching out to our families-in-need during difficult times, especially during the holidays. NLPOA members delivered turkeys to five title-1 schools within the City of Orlando communities. Over 100 families received Turkeys, rice, and stuffing to help complete their Thanksgiving Holiday.

Three Kings

500 families received gifts as part of the annual Three Kings' Day. The event has grown since it was first put on in the early 2000's, with SWAT vehicles, police horses, Orlando Fire Department trucks, and a helicopter from the Sheriff's office making appearances at the school's field along with free haircuts, food, games, and gifts for families who registered beforehand.

Since 2003, the Central Florida Chapter of the NLPOA has focused on our commitment to community service through leadership, mentoring, and charitable contributions.

We are a registered 501(c)(3) not-for-profit organization. Members contribute their own time and money to bring these community events to fruition, however, we cannot do this without the help of our local business and government partners.
